

CKRIPT TERMS & CONDITIONS

Version: 1.0

Effective Date: [DD Month YYYY]

Last Updated: [DD Month YYYY]

1. Introduction

Welcome to Ckript ("Ckript", "Company", "we", "our", or "us").

These Terms & Conditions ("Terms") constitute a legally binding agreement between you and Ckript Private Limited, together with its present and future subsidiaries, affiliates, successors, permitted assigns, licensors, partners, service providers, and authorised representatives, governing your access to and use of the Services.

Ckript is a technology company building AI-powered products, digital platforms, marketplaces, software, applications, APIs, creative technology solutions, networking tools, educational initiatives, commercial services, and other digital offerings that facilitate the discovery, management, evaluation, collaboration, promotion, licensing, and commercialization of creative works and intellectual property.

These Terms apply whenever you access, browse, register, purchase, upload content to, communicate through, or otherwise use any Service operated by Ckript.

By accessing or using any Ckript Service, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agree to be legally bound by these Terms and any policies incorporated by reference.

If you do not agree with these Terms, you must immediately discontinue using the Services.

2. About Ckript

Ckript is an AI-powered Creative Technology platform that connects creators with individuals, organisations, businesses, institutions, publishers, studios, production houses, broadcasters, entertainment companies, investors, agencies, brands, educational institutions, technology partners, and other participants in the global creative ecosystem.

Depending upon the Services offered at any given time, Ckript may provide, operate, support, license, facilitate, or manage:

- Creative work hosting
- Script discovery
- Book discovery
- Story discovery
- Intellectual property showcasing
- Creator portfolios

- Marketplace services

- White-labelled solutions
- Any future products or services developed, acquired, licensed, or operated by Ckript.

The Services available at any particular time may vary and may be modified, expanded, suspended, discontinued, renamed, replaced, or transferred at Ckript's sole discretion, subject to applicable law.

3. Purpose of these Terms

These Terms are intended to establish a clear legal framework governing the relationship between Ckript and its users.

Among other things, these Terms explain:

- who may use the Services;
- how accounts are created and managed;
- the rights and responsibilities of users;
- ownership of creative works;
- intellectual property protections;
- use of artificial intelligence features;
- marketplace functionality;
- commercial transactions;
- payments and subscriptions;
- participation in events and programs;
- acceptable use of the Services;
- dispute resolution procedures;
- liability limitations;
- user responsibilities; and
- other legal rights and obligations applicable to the use of the Services.

These Terms should be read together with our:

- Privacy Policy

- Copyright & Intellectual Property Policy
- Community Guidelines
- Marketplace Policy
- Event Rules
- Competition Rules
- Creator Agreements
- Producer Agreements
- Publisher Agreements
- any other policy, guideline, or legal document published by Ckript from time to time.

Where a Service-specific agreement conflicts with these Terms, the Service-specific agreement will prevail only to the extent of that conflict.

4. Scope

These Terms apply to all Services provided by or on behalf of Ckript, including but not limited to:

- www.ckript.com
- any future domains
- mobile applications
- desktop applications
- APIs
- developer tools
- creator dashboards
- producer dashboards

- fellowships
- incubation programs
- sponsored initiatives
- third-party partner programs
- support services
- marketing campaigns
- community programs
- and any future products, software, websites, or digital services operated, licensed, acquired, or controlled by Ckript.

These Terms apply regardless of whether access occurs through:

- a web browser;
- a mobile application;
- an API;
- third-party integrations;
- embedded widgets;
- enterprise software;
- partner platforms; or
- any other authorised access method.

5. Platform Evolution

Ckript is an evolving technology platform.

To support innovation and business growth, Ckript may, at any time and without creating any obligation to continue existing offerings, subject to applicable law:

- introduce new products or services;
- discontinue existing features;

- rename products, programs, services, memberships, or events;
- modify business models;
- launch premium offerings;
- introduce new pricing structures;
- expand into additional industries or markets;
- collaborate with governments, universities, brands, studios, publishers, production houses, technology providers, investors, accelerators, incubators, or other organisations;
- acquire or merge with other businesses;
- license or white-label technology;
- create subsidiaries or affiliates;
- restructure existing Services; or
- make any other commercial or operational changes reasonably necessary for the continued development of the Company.

Nothing in these Terms shall be interpreted as guaranteeing that any current feature, event, program, or Service will remain available indefinitely.

7. Definitions

Unless the context requires otherwise, the following definitions apply throughout these Terms.

Account means a registered user account used to access the Services.

Affiliate means any entity that directly or indirectly controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with Ckript.

AI Services means any artificial intelligence, machine learning, recommendation, automation, content generation, analysis, or related technologies offered by Ckript.

Company means Ckript Private Limited and its successors, affiliates, subsidiaries, assigns, and authorised representatives.

Content means any text, script, screenplay, manuscript, novel, book, pitch, synopsis, logline, treatment, character, dialogue, artwork, image, audio, video, software, code, data, design, document, presentation, AI-generated material, or any other information made available through the Services.

Creator means any writer, author, storyteller, screenwriter, playwright, novelist, editor, poet, comic creator, or other individual or organisation creating or managing creative works.

Creative Work means any original or derivative literary, artistic, dramatic, audiovisual, musical, or other copyrightable work uploaded to or managed through the Services.

Industry Professional means any producer, production house, publisher, literary agent, director, studio, OTT platform, investor, recruiter, broadcaster, media organisation, or verified commercial user.

Marketplace means any digital environment operated by Ckript enabling users to discover, showcase, evaluate, negotiate, license, purchase, sell, collaborate on, or otherwise interact regarding creative works or related services.

Services means all websites, applications, software, APIs, AI tools, events, competitions, programs, marketplaces, communication tools, and future offerings operated by Ckript.

User means any individual, organisation, institution, or legal entity accessing or using the Services.

Additional definitions appearing elsewhere in these Terms shall have the meanings assigned to them in the relevant section.

8. Eligibility

To use the Services, you must:

- have the legal capacity to enter into binding contracts;
- comply with applicable laws;
- provide accurate information;
- not be prohibited from using the Services under applicable law;
- comply with all platform policies.

If you access the Services on behalf of an organisation, you represent that you have authority to bind that organisation to these Terms.

Users below the age required to independently enter legally binding agreements under applicable law may only use the Services with the involvement or consent of a parent or legal guardian where required by law.

10. Electronic Acceptance

Where permitted by applicable law, your acceptance of these Terms through electronic means—including clicking "I Agree", creating an account, completing registration, using the Services, or otherwise indicating acceptance electronically—constitutes a legally binding agreement between you and Ckript.

Electronic records, electronic communications, electronic signatures, digital acknowledgements, and electronic consent shall have the same legal effect as physical documents and handwritten signatures, subject to applicable law.

11. Changes to these Terms

Ckript may revise these Terms from time to time to reflect changes in:

- applicable laws;
- business operations;

- platform features;
- technology;
- AI capabilities;
- partnerships;
- commercial offerings;
- security practices; or
- other operational requirements.

Where required by applicable law, we will provide appropriate notice of material changes through the platform, email, or other reasonable means.

The "Last Updated" date will indicate the latest revision.

Your continued use of the Services after revised Terms become effective constitutes acceptance of those revisions unless applicable law requires additional consent.

12. User Accounts

Access to certain Services requires the creation of a registered Account.

An Account enables you to access platform features, manage your profile, communicate with other users, participate in commercial opportunities, subscribe to paid Services, upload Creative Works, use AI-powered features, participate in events and programs, and access other functionality made available by Ckript.

Ckript reserves the right to determine which Services require registration and may modify, restrict, expand, or discontinue Account-based functionality at any time, subject to applicable law.

No person has an inherent right to maintain an Account on the Platform.

13. Types of Accounts

To support the diverse needs of the creative ecosystem, Ckript may provide different categories of Accounts.

Depending upon the Services available at any given time, these may include:

- Creator Accounts
- Writer Accounts
- Screenwriter Accounts
- Author Accounts
- Publisher Accounts
- Literary Agent Accounts
- Producer Accounts

- Production House Accounts
- Studio Accounts
- OTT Platform Accounts
- Investor Accounts
- Recruiter Accounts
- Educational Institution Accounts
- Organisation Accounts
- Enterprise Accounts
- Partner Accounts
- Administrator Accounts
- Moderator Accounts
- Community Accounts
- Premium Accounts
- Verified Accounts
- Trial Accounts
- API Accounts
- Developer Accounts
- Student Accounts
- Jury or Evaluator Accounts
- Event-Specific Accounts
- Any additional account category introduced by Ckript.

The availability, privileges, restrictions, eligibility criteria, pricing, and features associated with any Account type may differ and may be modified by Ckript from time to time.

14. Account Registration

To register an Account, you must provide complete, accurate, and current information as requested during the registration process.

Depending on the nature of the Services, registration may require:

- Full name
- Email address
- Mobile number
- Username

- Password
- Date of birth
- Country or region
- Professional information
- Company information
- Identification documents
- Tax information
- Payment information
- Portfolio details
- Social media profiles
- Government-issued identification
- Business verification documents
- Any additional information reasonably required by Ckript.

You represent and warrant that all information submitted during registration is truthful, accurate, complete, and not misleading.

You agree to promptly update your Account information whenever it changes.

Providing false, incomplete, fraudulent, or misleading information may result in the suspension, restriction, or termination of your Account.

15. Eligibility for Registration

By creating an Account, you represent and warrant that:

- you satisfy the eligibility requirements described in these Terms;
- you are legally competent to enter into binding agreements;
- you are not prohibited by applicable law from using the Services;
- you have not previously been permanently suspended from Ckript unless expressly authorised in writing;
- the information you provide is accurate;
- you will comply with all applicable laws.

If you are registering on behalf of an organisation or legal entity, you further represent that you have the legal authority to bind that organisation to these Terms.

16. Authentication

Ckript may support one or more authentication methods, including:

- Email and password
- One-Time Password (OTP)
- Passkeys
- OAuth authentication
- Google Sign-In
- Apple Sign-In
- Microsoft authentication
- Enterprise authentication
- Multi-factor authentication (MFA)
- Biometric authentication where supported
- Any future authentication technology adopted by Ckript.

The authentication methods available may vary by device, location, platform, regulatory requirements, or Service.

Ckript reserves the right to require additional authentication or verification measures where reasonably necessary to protect users, comply with applicable law, or maintain platform security.

17. Account Credentials

You are solely responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of your login credentials.

You agree to:

- choose strong passwords;
- protect authentication devices;
- maintain the security of passkeys and authentication applications;
- prevent unauthorized access to your Account;
- immediately notify Ckript if you suspect unauthorized access, compromise, or misuse.

You remain responsible for all activity occurring under your Account unless applicable law provides otherwise.

18. One Account Policy

Unless expressly permitted by Ckript in writing or required for legitimate business purposes, each individual may maintain only one personal Account.

Organisations may operate multiple Accounts where reasonably necessary for business operations, provided such Accounts are authorised and comply with these Terms.

Ckript may merge, restrict, suspend, or remove duplicate, fraudulent, deceptive, or abusive Accounts.

19. Verification

Ckript may, but is not obligated to, verify the identity, qualifications, affiliations, ownership, or professional status of any User.

Verification may include requests for:

- Government-issued identification
- Company registration documents
- Professional licenses
- Tax registration
- Business information
- Domain ownership
- Employment verification
- Educational records
- Industry credentials
- Social media verification
- Video verification
- Biometric verification where legally permissible
- Any other documentation reasonably required.

Failure to complete verification may restrict access to certain Services.

20. Verified Status

Ckript may grant verification badges or other indicators to eligible users.

Verification signifies only that Ckript has completed certain verification procedures based on information available at the time.

Verification does not constitute:

- endorsement;
- recommendation;
- certification;
- guarantee of legitimacy;
- guarantee of trustworthiness;

- guarantee of financial capacity;
- guarantee of professional competence;
- guarantee of future conduct.

Ckript may revoke, modify, suspend, or remove verification status at any time where appropriate.

21. Professional Profiles

Users may create professional profiles describing their experience, achievements, skills, portfolios, companies, publications, productions, investments, projects, or other professional information.

Users remain solely responsible for ensuring that all profile information is truthful, accurate, and not misleading.

Inflated credentials, fabricated achievements, impersonation, fake affiliations, or deceptive claims are prohibited.

22. Account Security Monitoring

To protect the integrity of the Platform, Ckript may monitor login activity, authentication events, unusual behaviour, suspected fraud, security threats, and technical indicators.

Such monitoring may include:

- login locations;
- device information;
- IP addresses;
- browser information;
- authentication logs;
- failed login attempts;
- suspicious behavioural patterns;
- automated abuse detection.

Monitoring will be conducted in accordance with applicable law and the Privacy Policy.

Ckript implements commercially reasonable administrative, technical, organisational, and physical safeguards designed to protect the confidentiality, integrity, and availability of the Services and personal information.

Such safeguards may include:

- encryption;
- access controls;
- authentication mechanisms;

- monitoring systems;
- logging;
- backup systems;
- disaster recovery procedures;
- security testing;
- vulnerability management;
- infrastructure security;
- fraud prevention systems.

However, no internet-based service, software, network, cloud infrastructure, or electronic storage system can guarantee absolute security.

Accordingly, Ckript cannot guarantee that unauthorised access, cyberattacks, security incidents, or data breaches will never occur.

Users are responsible for maintaining the security of their Accounts.

Users must:

- protect login credentials;
- use strong passwords;
- enable available security features;
- promptly report suspected unauthorised access;
- maintain secure devices;
- update software where appropriate;
- avoid sharing authentication credentials.

Users remain responsible for activities occurring through their Accounts except where applicable law provides otherwise.

23. Inactive Accounts

Accounts that remain inactive for extended periods may be archived, restricted, anonymised, or deleted, subject to applicable law, legal retention obligations, active subscriptions, ongoing transactions, intellectual property considerations, or pending disputes.

Ckript may notify Users before taking action where reasonably practicable.

24. Account Suspension

Ckript may suspend, restrict, temporarily disable, or limit access to an Account where it reasonably believes that:

- these Terms have been violated;
- applicable law requires action;
- fraudulent activity is suspected;
- intellectual property rights have been infringed;
- security risks exist;
- payment obligations remain outstanding;
- false information has been provided;
- harmful conduct has occurred;
- technical abuse has been detected;
- unauthorized automation has been used;
- spam or malicious activity has occurred;
- the integrity or security of the Platform is at risk.

Suspension may be temporary or permanent depending upon the severity of the circumstances.

25. Permanent Termination

Ckript may permanently terminate an Account where:

- repeated or serious violations occur;
- unlawful conduct is identified;
- fraudulent behaviour is established;
- intellectual property theft is confirmed;
- impersonation occurs;
- the User poses an ongoing security or legal risk;
- continued access would expose Ckript or other users to material harm.

Termination of an Account does not automatically extinguish obligations that accrued before termination, including payment obligations, confidentiality obligations, intellectual property licences that survive termination, or dispute resolution provisions.

26. Termination by the User

Users may discontinue using the Services at any time.

Where account deletion functionality is available, Users may request deletion of their Account, subject to:

- pending legal obligations;

- ongoing investigations;
- unresolved disputes;
- outstanding payments;
- active subscriptions;
- legal retention requirements;
- applicable law.

Deletion of an Account does not automatically entitle the User to refunds unless expressly provided by law or the applicable Refund Policy.

27. Recovery of Accounts

Where an Account has been compromised, lost, or accessed without authorization, Ckript may require reasonable evidence of ownership before restoring access.

Ckript reserves the right to refuse recovery requests where ownership cannot be adequately established or where restoration would create security, legal, or operational risks.

29. Nature of the Services

Ckript is a technology platform that develops, operates, licenses, manages, and provides digital products and services intended to facilitate the discovery, management, evaluation, promotion, collaboration, commercialization, and lawful exchange of creative works, intellectual property, professional opportunities, and related services.

Unless expressly stated otherwise in a separate written agreement, Ckript acts solely as a technology platform and does not act as an employer, recruitment agency, literary agency, talent agency, publisher, producer, production company, investment advisor, legal advisor, financial advisor, broker, escrow agent, fiduciary, or representative of any User.

The Services offered by Ckript are intended to facilitate interactions between Users but do not create any partnership, joint venture, employment, agency, franchise, fiduciary, or similar legal relationship between Ckript and any User.

30. Platform Services

Depending upon availability, Ckript may provide one or more of the following Services:

- creator portfolios;
- screenplay and script hosting;
- manuscript hosting;
- book and publication discovery;
- story discovery;
- AI-assisted creative analysis;

- AI-generated trailers;
- AI-assisted summaries;
- AI-assisted recommendations;
- marketplace services;
- professional networking;
- messaging services;
- video meetings;
- scheduling tools;
- collaboration workspaces;
- licensing workflows;
- portfolio verification;
- profile verification;
- creator discovery;
- talent discovery;
- recruitment tools;
- educational content;
- knowledge resources;
- subscription services;
- promotional services;
- analytics dashboards;
- APIs;
- software development tools;
- developer services;
- enterprise solutions;
- white-labelled products;
- mobile applications;
- desktop applications;
- browser extensions;
- cloud services;
- and any additional products or services introduced by Ckript.

The availability of any Service may vary by country, jurisdiction, subscription level, account type, technical capability, regulatory requirements, or commercial considerations.

31. Marketplace Services

Ckript may provide digital marketplace functionality enabling Users to:

- discover Creative Works;
- publish Creative Works;
- showcase portfolios;
- browse opportunities;
- express commercial interest;
- request access to Creative Works;
- negotiate opportunities;
- initiate communications;
- submit proposals;
- purchase platform services;
- participate in commercial workflows;
- discover collaborators;
- identify talent;
- participate in licensing discussions;
- access premium listings;
- participate in future marketplace offerings.

The Marketplace is intended solely as a technology-enabled facilitation platform.

Unless expressly agreed otherwise in writing, Ckript does not:

- own User-submitted Creative Works;
- negotiate commercial transactions on behalf of Users;
- determine licensing terms;
- guarantee transactions;
- collect royalties for Users;
- guarantee payments between Users;
- act as an escrow provider;
- provide legal representation;

- guarantee enforceability of private agreements.

32. Independent Transactions

Any agreement entered into between Users, including but not limited to:

- option agreements;
- licensing agreements;
- assignment agreements;
- publishing agreements;
- production agreements;
- collaboration agreements;
- consulting agreements;
- employment agreements;
- investment agreements;
- distribution agreements;
- service agreements;
- confidentiality agreements;
- sponsorship agreements;
- partnership agreements;

shall exist exclusively between the participating parties.

Ckript shall not become a party to such agreements merely because communications or introductions occurred through the Platform.

Users are solely responsible for:

- negotiating terms;
 - obtaining legal advice;
 - conducting due diligence;
 - verifying ownership;
 - documenting agreements;
 - complying with applicable laws;
 - managing taxes;
 - protecting confidential information.

33. No Brokerage or Agency Relationship

Ckript is not a broker, intermediary, talent agent, literary agent, publisher, producer, manager, employer, recruiter, investment advisor, financial institution, or legal representative.

Nothing contained within the Services shall be interpreted as creating:

- agency;
- partnership;
- employment;
- fiduciary relationship;
- brokerage relationship;
- representation;
- joint venture;
- franchise;
- or any similar legal relationship.

Any decision to negotiate, purchase, option, acquire, publish, produce, invest in, collaborate on, or otherwise commercialize Creative Works remains solely the responsibility of the participating Users.

34. User Communications

The Platform may provide communication tools including:

- messaging;
- direct messaging;
- group conversations;
- email notifications;
- audio communication;
- video conferencing;
- meeting scheduling;
- calendar integrations;
- collaboration tools;
- discussion forums;
- community spaces;
- future communication technologies.

Users are solely responsible for the content of communications sent through the Platform.

Ckript reserves the right to monitor, restrict, moderate, archive, investigate, or remove communications where reasonably necessary to:

- comply with applicable law;
- investigate abuse;
- protect Users;
- enforce these Terms;
- protect Platform security;
- comply with lawful governmental requests.

Nothing in these Terms obligates Ckript to monitor all communications.

35. Meetings and Introductions

The Platform may facilitate introductions between Users.

Such introductions may include:

- creators;
- producers;
- publishers;
- studios;
- investors;
- recruiters;
- literary agents;
- directors;
- educational institutions;
- service providers;
- technology partners;
- other verified participants.

Ckript does not guarantee:

- meetings;
- responses;
- negotiations;
- commercial success;
- investments;

- production opportunities;
- publication opportunities;
- employment;
- collaborations.

Users remain solely responsible for evaluating the suitability of any person or organisation with whom they interact.

36. Artificial Intelligence Services

Ckript may provide artificial intelligence technologies including but not limited to:

- creative analysis;
- screenplay evaluation;
- manuscript evaluation;
- summaries;
- recommendations;
- search assistance;
- matching algorithms;
- ranking systems;
- content categorization;
- metadata generation;
- AI-generated trailers;
- AI-generated promotional material;
- language translation;
- grammar enhancement;
- formatting assistance;
- automation tools;
- workflow optimisation;
- future AI-powered capabilities.

AI Services may be developed internally or provided through third-party models, APIs, or technology partners.

37. AI Limitations

Artificial Intelligence produces probabilistic outputs.

Accordingly:

- AI may generate inaccurate information;
- AI may produce incomplete analysis;
- AI may generate inconsistent recommendations;
- AI may fail to identify important issues;
- AI outputs may reflect limitations of training data;
- AI outputs may differ across time;
- AI outputs should not be treated as factual statements;
- AI outputs should not replace professional legal, financial, medical, investment, publishing, production, or business advice.
- may be inaccurate;
- may contain errors;
- may be incomplete;
- may omit important information;
- may generate inconsistent responses;
- should not be treated as legal, financial, tax, medical, investment, publishing, production, or professional advice;
- require independent human review before being relied upon.

Users remain solely responsible for independently reviewing AI-generated outputs before relying upon them.

38. AI Training and Improvement

To the extent permitted by applicable law and subject to the Privacy Policy and any applicable user controls, Ckript may use anonymized, aggregated, de-identified, or otherwise lawfully processed operational data to improve, evaluate, maintain, secure, test, develop, and enhance its Services, including AI systems.

Ckript will not use confidential Creative Works to train publicly available AI models in a manner inconsistent with its published policies or applicable agreements.

Where Ckript introduces user controls regarding AI training or model improvement, such controls shall govern the applicable processing.

39. Beta Features

From time to time, Ckript may release experimental, preview, beta, early access, pilot, or test features.

Beta Features:

- may be incomplete;
- may contain errors;
- may be discontinued;
- may change substantially;
- may not be supported;
- may be subject to separate terms.

Users participate in Beta Features voluntarily and acknowledge that such features are provided "as is."

40. Third-Party Integrations

The Services may integrate with third-party technologies including:

- payment providers;
- cloud providers;
- AI providers;
- authentication providers;
- communication providers;
- calendar services;
- mapping services;
- analytics providers;
- storage providers;
- video conferencing platforms;
- productivity software;
- developer platforms;
- social media services;
- or other external systems.

Ckript does not control third-party services and is not responsible for their:

- availability;
- performance;
- accuracy;
- security;

- privacy practices;
- policies;
- functionality.

Use of third-party services remains subject to the applicable third-party terms.

43. Ownership of Creative Works

Except as expressly provided in these Terms or in a separate written agreement, Users retain all right, title, and interest in and to the Creative Works they submit, upload, publish, store, share, or otherwise make available through the Services.

Uploading or submitting a Creative Work to the Platform does not transfer ownership of that Creative Work to Ckript.

Ownership includes, where applicable:

- copyright;
- neighbouring rights;
- database rights;
- moral rights (to the extent waivable under applicable law);
- trademarks;
- trade dress;
- design rights;
- patents;
- confidential information;
- trade secrets;
- publicity rights;
- and all other intellectual property rights recognised under applicable law.

Nothing contained in these Terms shall be interpreted as assigning ownership of a User's Creative Work to Ckript unless expressly agreed in writing.

44. Representations and Warranties Regarding User Content

By uploading, submitting, publishing, transmitting, storing, or otherwise making available any Content through the Services, you represent and warrant that:

- you own the Content or possess all rights, licences, permissions, consents, and authority necessary to upload and use it;

- your use of the Content does not infringe the intellectual property, privacy, publicity, contractual, or other legal rights of any third party;
- you have obtained all required permissions from co-authors, collaborators, employers, clients, publishers, producers, or any other person or entity having an interest in the Content;
- the Content does not contain material that is unlawful, defamatory, fraudulent, misleading, obscene, hateful, or otherwise prohibited under these Terms;
- the information associated with the Content is accurate and not intentionally misleading;
- you have the legal authority to grant the licences described in these Terms.

You remain solely responsible for the legality, authenticity, and ownership of your Content.

45. Chain of Title

Where applicable, you represent and warrant that you possess a valid chain of title to any Creative Work uploaded to the Platform.

This means that you have the legal right to exploit, licence, commercialise, publish, assign, or otherwise deal with the Creative Work, free from undisclosed ownership disputes or restrictions.

If multiple persons hold rights in a Creative Work, you represent that you have obtained all necessary authorisations before uploading or making the work available through the Services.

Ckript does not independently verify chain of title and may rely upon your representations unless required by applicable law or a specific investigation.

46. Licence Granted to Ckript

To operate the Services, you grant Ckript a limited, non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free, transferable (only as necessary to provide the Services), sublicensable (only to service providers acting on Ckript's behalf), revocable (subject to this Section), licence to:

- host;
- store;
- reproduce;
- cache;
- index;
- format;
- transcode;
- display;
- distribute;

- transmit;
- back up;
- process;
- analyse;
- secure;
- moderate;
- archive;
- create thumbnails or previews;
- generate metadata;
- enable search and discovery;
- facilitate authorised user access;
- and otherwise use your Content solely to the extent reasonably necessary to:
- provide the Services;
- maintain the Platform;
- improve functionality;
- prevent fraud;
- ensure security;
- comply with legal obligations;
- provide customer support;
- facilitate authorised transactions;
- perform research and analytics using aggregated or anonymised information;
- market the Platform using only the permissions granted by you or applicable law.

This licence does not transfer ownership of your Content.

47. Duration of the Licence

The licence granted to Ckript remains in effect only for so long as reasonably necessary to:

- provide the Services;
- comply with legal obligations;
- complete active transactions;
- resolve disputes;
- maintain security;

- preserve backups for disaster recovery;
- comply with lawful retention requirements.

Upon deletion of your Content or Account, Ckript will cease ordinary use of the Content within a commercially reasonable period, except where continued retention is required by:

- applicable law;
 - court order;
 - regulatory obligation;
 - fraud prevention;
 - dispute resolution;
 - backup systems;
 - or active contractual obligations.

48. Public and Private Content

The Platform may permit Users to designate Content as:

- Public;
- Private;
- Restricted;
- Invitation-only;
- Draft;
- Archived;
- Premium;
- Confidential;
- or any additional visibility category introduced by Ckript.

Users are responsible for selecting the appropriate visibility settings.

While Ckript implements reasonable technical safeguards, no internet-based system can guarantee absolute confidentiality or security.

Users should exercise appropriate discretion before sharing unpublished or commercially sensitive material.

49. Confidential Creative Works

Certain Creative Works uploaded to the Platform may be unpublished, confidential, proprietary, commercially valuable, or otherwise sensitive.

Users who obtain authorised access to such Content agree not to:

- copy;
- reproduce;
- distribute;
- disclose;
- publicly display;
- commercially exploit;
- reverse engineer;
- create derivative works from;
- misuse;
- or otherwise use such Content beyond the permissions expressly granted by its owner.

Nothing in these Terms transfers confidential information or proprietary rights between Users.

50. Intellectual Property of Ckript

Except for User Content, all intellectual property associated with the Services is owned by or licensed to Ckript.

This includes, without limitation:

- software;
- source code;
- object code;
- algorithms;
- artificial intelligence systems;
- machine learning models;
- prompts;
- workflows;
- APIs;
- databases;
- user interface designs;
- graphics;
- animations;
- documentation;

- trademarks;
- logos;
- brand names;
- trade dress;
- icons;
- audio;
- video;
- platform architecture;
- compilations;
- layouts;
- proprietary datasets;
- business methods;
- confidential information;
- and all other Platform materials.

No rights are granted except those expressly stated in these Terms.

51. Limited Licence to Use the Platform

Subject to your compliance with these Terms, Ckript grants you a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable, non-sublicensable, revocable licence to access and use the Services solely for their intended purpose.

This licence does not permit you to:

- reproduce the Platform;
 - redistribute Platform materials;
 - commercially exploit Platform software;
 - create competing products using Platform assets;
 - reverse engineer proprietary systems except where prohibited by law;
 - bypass technical protections;
 - interfere with Platform security.

52. Feedback

If you voluntarily provide suggestions, ideas, recommendations, feature requests, comments, bug reports, or other feedback regarding the Services ("Feedback"), you grant Ckript a perpetual, irrevocable, worldwide, royalty-free, transferable, sublicensable licence to use, modify, publish, implement, commercialise, and incorporate such Feedback without restriction or compensation, unless otherwise agreed in writing.

This Section does not transfer ownership of your Creative Works merely because they contain ideas that inspire Feedback.

53. Copyright Complaints

Ckript respects intellectual property rights and expects Users to do the same.

If you believe that material available through the Services infringes your copyright or other intellectual property rights, you may submit a written notice containing:

- identification of the copyrighted work or other protected material;
- identification of the allegedly infringing material;
- sufficient information to enable Ckript to locate the material;
- your contact details;
- a statement of good-faith belief that the disputed use is unauthorised;
- a statement that the information provided is accurate and that you are authorised to act on behalf of the rights holder, where applicable;
- any additional information reasonably requested by Ckript.

Ckript may investigate complaints and take appropriate action, including temporary removal, restriction, disabling access, requesting additional information, or rejecting incomplete or abusive notices.

54. Repeat Infringer Policy

Ckript reserves the right to suspend or terminate Accounts belonging to Users who repeatedly or materially infringe the intellectual property rights of others.

In determining whether a User qualifies as a repeat infringer, Ckript may consider:

- the number of complaints;
- the credibility of complaints;
- court orders;
- admissions;
- evidence provided;
- prior violations;
- abusive conduct;
- or other relevant circumstances.

55. No Monitoring Obligation

Ckript is not obligated to monitor all Content uploaded by Users.

However, Ckript may review, investigate, moderate, restrict, remove, disable access to, or preserve Content where reasonably necessary to:

- comply with applicable law;
- enforce these Terms;
- respond to legal requests;
- protect intellectual property rights;
- investigate abuse;
- maintain Platform integrity;
- protect Users;
- ensure operational security.

56. Digital Watermarking and Content Protection

Ckript may implement technological measures intended to help protect Creative Works, including but not limited to:

- digital watermarking;
- visible or invisible watermarks;
- access controls;
- encryption;
- download restrictions;
- screenshot protection (where technically feasible);
- audit logs;
- usage monitoring;
- document fingerprinting;
- AI-assisted detection of unauthorised distribution.

The implementation of such measures does not constitute a guarantee against infringement, unauthorised copying, or misuse.

Users remain responsible for protecting their own intellectual property and obtaining appropriate legal advice where necessary.

57. Reservation of Rights

Except for the limited licences expressly granted under these Terms:

- Users retain all rights in their Content; and
- Ckript retains all rights in the Services.

No rights, licences, assignments, or permissions shall be implied by law, estoppel, or otherwise.

All rights not expressly granted are reserved by their respective owners.

58. Paid Services

While many Services may be available without charge, certain features, products, programs, memberships, subscriptions, events, tools, AI capabilities, promotional services, marketplace functions, educational offerings, or other Services may require payment.

Paid Services may include, without limitation:

- subscription plans;
- premium memberships;
- AI-powered features;
- marketplace features;
- portfolio promotion;
- profile verification;
- premium visibility;
- analytics services;
- evaluation services;
- educational programs;
- workshops;
- conferences;
- networking events;
- competitions;
- application fees;
- listing fees;
- advertising services;
- enterprise offerings;
- API access;
- developer services;
- consulting services;

- custom solutions;
- white-label services;
- or any other paid product or service introduced by Ckript.

Ckript reserves the right to determine which Services are paid or free and may modify such classifications from time to time in accordance with applicable law.

59. Pricing

The price of any Paid Service shall be the price displayed at the time of purchase unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing.

Prices may:

- vary by jurisdiction;
- vary by currency;
- vary by account type;
- vary by subscription tier;
- vary by promotional offer;
- vary by event;
- vary by partner program;
- vary by tax obligations;
- vary by payment method.

Unless expressly stated otherwise, all prices are exclusive of applicable taxes, duties, levies, governmental charges, processing fees, and similar assessments.

60. Subscriptions

Certain Services may be provided through recurring subscription plans.

Subscription plans may include different levels of access, usage limits, AI credits, storage limits, collaboration features, support levels, marketplace functionality, promotional benefits, or additional services.

Subscription features may change over time as the Platform evolves.

Ckript may introduce, modify, replace, merge, discontinue, or rename subscription plans without affecting the validity of these Terms.

61. Automatic Renewal

Unless otherwise stated at the time of purchase, recurring subscriptions automatically renew at the end of each billing cycle using the payment method associated with your Account.

You authorize Ckript and its payment processors to charge the applicable subscription fees, taxes, and authorised recurring amounts until cancellation.

You may cancel renewal before the next billing cycle through the available account settings or by contacting Customer Support where such functionality is provided.

Cancellation prevents future renewal but does not automatically entitle you to a refund for the current billing period unless required by applicable law or expressly stated in the applicable Refund Policy.

62. Free Trials and Promotional Offers

From time to time, Ckript may offer:

- free trials;
- introductory pricing;
- beta access;
- promotional subscriptions;
- discounted plans;
- referral benefits;
- coupons;
- vouchers;
- promotional credits;
- educational discounts;
- partner offers;
- event discounts;
- or similar promotional programs.

Unless otherwise stated:

- promotional offers have no cash value;
- promotional offers may not be transferred;
- promotional offers may not be redeemed for cash;
- promotional offers may expire;
- promotional offers may be withdrawn at any time before redemption, subject to applicable law.

Ckript reserves the right to determine eligibility for promotional offers and to prevent misuse or abuse.

63. Billing

You agree to provide accurate, complete, and current billing information.

You authorize Ckript and its authorised payment providers to:

- verify payment methods;
- charge applicable fees;
- process recurring payments where applicable;
- collect taxes;
- issue invoices or receipts;
- process refunds where applicable;
- perform fraud prevention measures;
- comply with applicable legal obligations.

Failure to maintain valid billing information may result in suspension or restriction of Paid Services.

64. Payment Methods

Payments may be processed through one or more authorised third-party payment providers.

Supported payment methods may include:

- credit cards;
- debit cards;
- net banking;
- UPI;
- digital wallets;
- bank transfers;
- payment gateways;
- enterprise invoicing;
- international payment providers;
- or any additional payment methods supported by Ckript.

Ckript does not store complete payment card information unless expressly stated and permitted by applicable law.

Payment processing is subject to the terms and privacy policies of the applicable payment provider.

65. Taxes

Users are responsible for all applicable:

- Goods and Services Tax (GST);
- Value Added Tax (VAT);
- sales tax;
- withholding tax;
- customs duties;
- import duties;
- local taxes;
- governmental charges;
- regulatory fees;
- or similar obligations,

unless Ckript expressly states otherwise or applicable law requires Ckript to collect or remit such amounts.

Where required by law, Ckript may collect, report, deduct, withhold, or remit taxes on behalf of Users.

Users remain responsible for their own income tax, business tax, and accounting obligations arising from transactions conducted through or in connection with the Services.

66. Invoices and Receipts

Where applicable, Ckript may issue invoices, receipts, tax invoices, credit notes, debit notes, or other financial documents electronically.

Users consent to receiving such documents in electronic form unless applicable law requires otherwise.

It is the User's responsibility to ensure that their billing information is accurate for tax and accounting purposes.

67. Refunds

Refund eligibility, timelines, exclusions, cancellation procedures, goodwill refunds, exceptional circumstances, payment disputes, and related matters are governed by the Ckript Refund Policy, which is incorporated into these Terms by reference.

Unless required by applicable law or expressly stated in the Refund Policy:

- payments are non-refundable once the relevant Service has been substantially provided or accessed;
- partially used subscriptions are not eligible for prorated refunds;
- promotional purchases may be subject to additional restrictions;
- event-specific refunds may be governed by separate event rules.

Nothing in this Section limits any statutory consumer rights available under applicable law.

68. Chargebacks and Payment Disputes

If you initiate a chargeback, payment reversal, payment dispute, or similar claim with your financial institution without first attempting to resolve the matter through Ckript where reasonably possible, Ckript may:

- suspend your Account;
- restrict Paid Services;
- investigate the dispute;
- recover outstanding amounts where legally permitted;
- require additional verification before restoring access.

Nothing in this Section limits your legal rights to dispute unauthorized or fraudulent transactions under applicable law.

69. Promotional Credits and Wallet Balances

Ckript may issue promotional credits, reward credits, referral credits, event credits, educational credits, loyalty benefits, or other non-cash incentives.

Unless expressly stated otherwise:

- such credits have no monetary value;
- are non-transferable;
- are not redeemable for cash;
- may expire;
- may be revoked where fraud or abuse is detected;
- may only be used in accordance with the applicable promotional terms.

Where Ckript introduces a wallet or stored-value functionality in the future, additional terms may apply.

70. Payouts

Where Ckript facilitates payouts, revenue sharing, creator earnings, referral incentives, rewards, grants, prize money, reimbursements, or similar financial distributions, such payments may be subject to:

- identity verification;
- tax compliance;
- banking verification;
- sanctions screening;
- fraud prevention;
- minimum payout thresholds;
- applicable fees;
- separate program terms.

Ckript reserves the right to withhold or delay payouts where reasonably necessary to comply with applicable law, investigate fraud, resolve disputes, or verify eligibility.

71. Pricing Changes

Ckript may revise pricing for Paid Services from time to time.

Changes may result from:

- operational costs;
- inflation;
- regulatory requirements;
- taxation;
- new features;
- service improvements;
- market conditions;
- exchange rate fluctuations;
- technological developments;
- commercial strategy.

Where required by applicable law or by the terms of a subscription plan, Ckript will provide reasonable notice before pricing changes take effect.

Continued use of the affected Paid Service after the effective date of a pricing change constitutes acceptance of the revised pricing, unless applicable law requires additional consent.

72. Payment Fraud

Users must not:

- use stolen payment instruments;
- provide fraudulent billing information;
- attempt unauthorized payment reversals;
- engage in money laundering;
- evade taxes;
- circumvent payment systems;
- manipulate promotional offers;
- abuse refund processes;
- use another person's financial information without authorization.

Ckript reserves the right to investigate suspected financial misconduct and cooperate with financial institutions and law enforcement authorities where legally required.

73. Suspension for Non-Payment

Ckript may suspend, restrict, downgrade, or terminate access to Paid Services where:

- payment remains outstanding;
- recurring billing fails;
- payment methods become invalid;
- invoices remain unpaid;
- fraudulent payment activity is suspected;
- chargebacks occur;
- legal or regulatory restrictions prevent payment processing.

Suspension for non-payment does not relieve Users of any outstanding payment obligations accrued prior to suspension.

74. Financial Records

Ckript may maintain records relating to purchases, invoices, refunds, credits, subscriptions, and payment transactions for accounting, auditing, fraud prevention, legal compliance, dispute resolution, and operational purposes in accordance with applicable law and the Privacy Policy.

Retention of financial records does not imply continued access to the underlying Paid Services after expiration or termination.

75. General Event Framework

From time to time, Ckript may independently or jointly organise, sponsor, administer, facilitate, support, promote, or participate in various initiatives intended to encourage creativity, collaboration, education, networking, innovation, talent discovery, entrepreneurship, professional development, or commercial opportunities.

Such initiatives may include, without limitation:

- competitions;
- script challenges;
- writing contests;
- storytelling competitions;
- pitch competitions;
- hackathons;
- innovation challenges;
- workshops;
- masterclasses;
- webinars;
- conferences;
- seminars;
- networking events;
- festivals;
- award ceremonies;
- accelerator programs;
- incubation programs;
- fellowships;
- grant programs;
- scholarship initiatives;
- educational campaigns;
- showcases;
- exhibitions;
- recruitment drives;
- mentorship programs;
- internship programs;
- community initiatives;

- promotional campaigns;
- marketing collaborations;
- sponsorship programs;
- partner initiatives; and
- any similar activity introduced by Ckript from time to time.

The names, branding, format, duration, eligibility, structure, prizes, and objectives of such initiatives may change at any time.

76. Independent and Collaborative Programs

Any initiative may be organised:

- solely by Ckript;
- jointly with one or more strategic partners;
- on behalf of another organisation;
- under licence;
- through sponsorship;
- through franchise arrangements;
- through educational collaborations;
- through governmental collaborations;
- through industry partnerships;
- through media partnerships;
- through technology partnerships;
- through nonprofit collaborations;
- through international collaborations; or
- through any other lawful arrangement.

Nothing in these Terms shall be interpreted as limiting Ckript to organising only its own events.

77. Event-Specific Rules

Each event, competition, program, campaign, or initiative may be governed by additional rules, eligibility criteria, judging criteria, participation requirements, codes of conduct, privacy notices, prize terms, or other legal documentation.

Where event-specific rules exist, participants agree to comply with both:

- these Terms; and

- the applicable event-specific rules.

If a direct conflict exists between these Terms and event-specific rules, the event-specific rules shall prevail only for that specific event and only to the extent of the conflict.

78. Eligibility for Participation

Participation in any event or program may require satisfaction of one or more eligibility criteria, including but not limited to:

- minimum age;
- nationality;
- residency;
- educational status;
- professional experience;
- account verification;
- subscription status;
- payment of participation fees;
- compliance with applicable laws;
- completion of registration requirements;
- acceptance of event-specific rules.

Eligibility requirements may vary between different initiatives.

Ckript reserves the right to verify eligibility before, during, or after participation.

79. Registration

Participation may require advance registration.

During registration, participants may be required to provide:

- personal information;
- professional information;
- portfolio details;
- educational records;
- business information;
- identification documents;
- tax information;
- payment information;

- declarations;
- consent forms;
- supporting documents;
- or any additional information reasonably required for administration of the initiative.

Providing false or misleading information may result in disqualification.

80. Submission of Entries

Where an initiative involves submission of Creative Works, ideas, projects, presentations, prototypes, business proposals, manuscripts, scripts, books, pitches, designs, videos, software, or any other material ("Entries"), participants represent and warrant that:

- they own or are authorised to submit the Entry;
- the Entry does not infringe third-party rights;
- all required permissions have been obtained;
- the Entry complies with applicable laws;
- the Entry complies with these Terms and applicable event rules.

Submission of an Entry does not transfer ownership to Ckript except to the extent expressly provided in these Terms or the applicable event rules.

81. Licence for Event Administration

To administer an initiative, participants grant Ckript a limited, non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free licence to:

- receive;
- store;
- review;
- reproduce;
- evaluate;
- display internally;
- share with authorised judges, mentors, evaluators, partners, or organisers;
- archive;
- moderate;
- administer the initiative;
- announce results;

- and otherwise manage the initiative.

Unless expressly stated otherwise in the applicable event rules, this licence is limited to administration of the relevant initiative and does not transfer ownership of the submitted Entry.

82. Judging and Evaluation

Where judging or evaluation forms part of an initiative:

- judging criteria may vary;
- judges may include internal or external experts;
- AI-assisted evaluation tools may be used where disclosed;
- scores may include subjective elements;
- judges' decisions shall generally be final unless otherwise stated in the applicable rules.

Ckript does not guarantee any minimum score, ranking, prize, funding, publication, production opportunity, investment, employment, or commercial outcome.

83. Prizes, Rewards, and Recognition

Where prizes, rewards, grants, scholarships, recognition, certificates, internships, investments, promotional opportunities, or other benefits are offered:

- eligibility may be verified before distribution;
- recipients may be required to complete additional documentation;
- taxes may be deducted where required by law;
- prizes may be substituted where circumstances reasonably require;
- non-cash prizes may not be exchanged for cash unless expressly permitted.

Unless otherwise stated, prizes are non-transferable.

84. Sponsorships and Third-Party Benefits

Certain initiatives may include sponsorships, grants, discounts, internships, employment opportunities, mentorship, investments, publishing opportunities, production opportunities, promotional opportunities, software licences, or other benefits offered by third parties.

Such benefits remain subject to the terms, conditions, policies, and decisions of the relevant third party.

Ckript does not guarantee that any sponsor or partner will fulfil any opportunity beyond its stated commitments.

85. Participant Conduct

Participants must:

- act honestly;
- comply with event rules;
- respect judges, organisers, mentors, sponsors, volunteers, and other participants;
- refrain from cheating;
- refrain from plagiarism;
- refrain from harassment;
- refrain from disruptive conduct;
- refrain from manipulating judging processes;
- refrain from submitting fraudulent information.

Violation of this Section may result in immediate disqualification.

86. Disqualification

Ckript may disqualify any participant who:

- violates these Terms;
- violates event rules;
- submits plagiarised material;
- provides false information;
- attempts to manipulate results;
- engages in abusive conduct;
- attempts bribery;
- interferes with organisers;
- threatens participants;
- commits fraud;
- breaches confidentiality;
- infringes intellectual property rights.

Disqualification may occur before, during, or after an initiative.

Where prizes have already been distributed, Ckript may require their return where legally permissible.

87. Publicity

Unless prohibited by applicable law or expressly stated otherwise, participants grant Ckript permission to use their:

- name;
- professional title;
- company name;
- city;
- country;
- photographs;
- profile image;
- publicly available biography;
- competition results;
- awards;
- certificates;
- interviews;
- testimonials;
- publicly presented portions of Entries;

for reasonable promotional, educational, archival, reporting, and marketing purposes relating to the relevant initiative.

This Section does not grant Ckript ownership of Creative Works.

88. Event Modifications

Ckript reserves the right to:

- postpone;
- reschedule;
- modify;
- suspend;
- merge;
- divide;
- relocate;
- digitise;
- cancel;

- discontinue;
- rename;
- extend;
- shorten;
- or otherwise modify any initiative

where reasonably necessary due to operational, technical, commercial, legal, safety, regulatory, environmental, or force majeure circumstances.

Where reasonably practicable, participants will be informed of material changes.

89. Cancellation

Ckript may cancel an initiative before completion where circumstances reasonably require, including:

- insufficient participation;
- legal restrictions;
- technical failures;
- security concerns;
- sponsor withdrawal;
- force majeure;
- governmental action;
- operational necessity.

Where participation fees have been collected, refunds shall be governed by the applicable Refund Policy or event-specific rules.

90. Community Participation

Participation in community discussions, networking activities, mentorship programs, collaborative spaces, educational initiatives, and similar community features must comply with:

- these Terms;
- Community Guidelines;
- applicable event rules;
- applicable laws.

Ckript may moderate community interactions to maintain a safe, respectful, and professional environment.

91. Reservation of Rights

Except where prohibited by applicable law, Ckript reserves the right to determine:

- event structures;
- participation limits;
- judging methodologies;
- evaluation criteria;
- prizes;
- sponsorship arrangements;
- operational procedures;
- eligibility requirements;
- administrative decisions;

provided that such decisions are exercised reasonably and consistently with these Terms and applicable law.

92. General Standards of Conduct

Users must access and use the Services lawfully, honestly, responsibly, and in a manner that respects the rights, safety, privacy, intellectual property, and legitimate interests of Ckript and other Users.

By using the Services, you agree to conduct yourself professionally and refrain from any activity that could reasonably be expected to damage the Platform, interfere with its operation, infringe the rights of others, or undermine the integrity of the Ckript community.

93. Compliance with Applicable Laws

You are solely responsible for ensuring that your use of the Services complies with all applicable:

- laws;
- regulations;
- governmental orders;
- industry standards;
- sanctions;
- export controls;
- licensing requirements;
- court orders;
- and regulatory obligations

applicable in the jurisdictions where you access or use the Services.

Nothing in these Terms authorises any User to engage in unlawful activity.

94. Acceptable Use

You may use the Services only for legitimate and lawful purposes consistent with these Terms and any applicable policies.

Examples of acceptable use include:

- publishing original Creative Works;
 - discovering commercial opportunities;
 - networking with industry professionals;
 - participating in educational programs;
 - using AI tools responsibly;
 - collaborating with authorised Users;
 - participating in competitions or events;
 - accessing marketplace functionality in accordance with applicable rules;
 - using APIs in accordance with applicable documentation;
 - communicating respectfully with other Users.

95. Prohibited Activities

Without limiting any other provision of these Terms, you must not:

Identity and Misrepresentation

- impersonate another person or organisation;
- create fake profiles;
- use stolen identities;
- falsely claim professional affiliations;
- misrepresent credentials, awards, or experience;
- create misleading company profiles.

Intellectual Property

- upload material you do not own or have authority to use;
- infringe copyright, trademark, patent, design, publicity, privacy, database, or trade secret rights;
- remove copyright notices;
- circumvent watermarking;

- falsely claim ownership of another person's work.

Fraud

- engage in fraud;
- deceive Users;
- solicit money under false pretences;
- manipulate marketplace transactions;
- provide false verification documents;
- evade payment obligations;
- abuse promotional offers;
- submit forged records.

Security

- attempt unauthorised access;
- bypass authentication;
- bypass access restrictions;
- exploit vulnerabilities;
- probe security systems;
- interfere with security controls;
- distribute malware;
- introduce viruses;
- launch denial-of-service attacks;
- interfere with network integrity.

Platform Abuse

- scrape Platform content;
- harvest user data;
- use automated bots without authorisation;
- overload Platform infrastructure;
- interfere with normal operation;
- manipulate search rankings;
- artificially inflate engagement;
- create duplicate Accounts to gain unfair advantages.

Harassment

- threaten others;
- intimidate others;
- stalk others;
- bully others;
- discriminate against others;
- publish hateful material;
- encourage violence;
- sexually harass other Users;
- publish unlawful abusive material.

Illegal Content

You must not upload or distribute material that:

- violates applicable law;
- promotes terrorism;
- promotes organised crime;
- promotes child exploitation;
- promotes human trafficking;
- facilitates money laundering;
- facilitates fraud;
- incites violence;
- promotes unlawful activity.

Spam

You must not:

- send unsolicited commercial messages;
- mass-message Users;
- distribute scams;
- distribute phishing messages;
- create fake engagement;
- manipulate reviews.

96. AI Misuse

Where AI-powered Services are available, you must not:

- attempt prompt injection attacks;
- manipulate AI safety mechanisms;
- attempt to extract confidential system prompts;
- reverse engineer proprietary AI systems except where permitted by law;
- use AI outputs to commit fraud;
- submit unlawful prompts;
- generate harmful or illegal content;
- use AI Services to infringe third-party rights;
- intentionally misuse AI-generated outputs;
- misrepresent AI-generated material as independently verified professional advice.

Ckript may impose additional AI usage policies from time to time.

97. Automated Access

Except where expressly authorised by Ckript in writing, you must not:

- use bots;
- deploy crawlers;
- operate scrapers;
- use automated harvesting tools;
- automate account creation;
- automate messaging;
- automate voting or rankings;
- automate submissions;
- automate purchases;
- circumvent API restrictions.

Where Ckript provides official APIs or developer tools, automated access must comply with the applicable documentation and usage policies.

98. Marketplace Integrity

Users participating in marketplace activities must not:

- manipulate negotiations;
- artificially inflate prices;

- interfere with legitimate transactions;
 - misrepresent ownership;
 - impersonate buyers or sellers;
 - engage in market manipulation;
 - mislead other Users regarding commercial opportunities;
 - intentionally disrupt negotiations.

99. Professional Conduct

Users representing organisations, studios, publishers, production houses, agencies, investors, educational institutions, or businesses must conduct themselves professionally.

Professional Users must not:

- knowingly misuse confidential submissions;
 - intentionally mislead creators;
 - falsely advertise opportunities;
 - abuse verification status;
 - request unlawful payments;
 - discriminate unlawfully;
 - exploit Users through deceptive conduct.

100. Confidential Information

Where Users receive confidential information through the Services, they must:

- use it only for its authorised purpose;
- protect its confidentiality;
- not disclose it without permission;
- not exploit confidential information for unauthorised commercial purposes.

Nothing in this Section creates an independent non-disclosure agreement unless separately agreed between the parties.

101. Export Controls and Sanctions

You represent that you are not prohibited from using the Services under applicable export control, trade sanctions, or similar laws.

You agree not to use the Services in violation of applicable export control regulations or sanctions laws.

Ckript may restrict access where necessary to comply with applicable legal obligations.

102. Anti-Bribery and Anti-Corruption

Users must not use the Services to:

- offer bribes;
 - solicit unlawful payments;
 - engage in corruption;
 - facilitate money laundering;
 - violate anti-corruption laws;
 - improperly influence judges, evaluators, organisers, or commercial counterparties.

103. Reporting Violations

Users are encouraged to report suspected violations of:

- these Terms;
- Community Guidelines;
- applicable laws;
- intellectual property rights;
- Platform policies.

Reports should be made in good faith.

Knowingly submitting false or malicious reports may itself constitute a violation of these Terms.

104. Investigations

Ckript may investigate suspected violations of these Terms.

During an investigation, Ckript may:

- request additional information;
- preserve evidence;
- temporarily restrict access;
- suspend Accounts;
- remove Content;

- contact affected Users;
- cooperate with law enforcement authorities;
- cooperate with regulatory authorities;
- obtain professional advice;
- take any other reasonable action necessary to protect the Platform.

Nothing in this Section obligates Ckript to investigate every reported incident.

105. Enforcement Measures

Where Ckript reasonably determines that these Terms have been violated, it may take one or more of the following actions:

- issue warnings;
- require corrective action;
- remove Content;
- restrict functionality;
- suspend Accounts;
- terminate Accounts;
- revoke verification;
- revoke promotional benefits;
- cancel event participation;
- withhold prizes where legally permissible;
- refuse future registration;
- pursue legal remedies;
- report unlawful conduct to competent authorities.

The enforcement action taken shall generally be proportionate to the nature and severity of the violation.

106. Appeals

Where reasonably practicable, Users whose Accounts or Content have been subject to enforcement action may submit an appeal through the procedures made available by Ckript.

Submission of an appeal does not guarantee reversal of any decision.

Ckript shall review appeals in good faith and may uphold, modify, or reverse its original decision where appropriate.

107. Reservation of Enforcement Rights

The examples of prohibited conduct contained in these Terms are illustrative and not exhaustive.

Ckript reserves the right to determine, acting reasonably and in accordance with applicable law, whether particular conduct threatens the safety, integrity, security, reputation, or lawful operation of the Services.

Failure to specifically identify particular conduct within these Terms shall not prevent Ckript from taking reasonable action where necessary to protect the Platform or comply with legal obligations.

108. Privacy

Your privacy is important to Ckript.

The collection, use, storage, processing, disclosure, transfer, retention, and protection of personal information is governed by the Ckript Privacy Policy, which forms an integral part of these Terms and is incorporated herein by reference.

By using the Services, you acknowledge that you have read and understood the Privacy Policy and consent to the processing of your personal information in accordance with applicable law and the Privacy Policy.

Nothing in these Terms shall limit any rights granted to Users under applicable data protection laws.

111. Service Availability

Ckript aims to provide reliable and continuous access to the Services.

However, uninterrupted availability cannot be guaranteed.

The Services may become temporarily unavailable due to:

- maintenance;
- infrastructure upgrades;
- security incidents;
- technical failures;
- software updates;
- internet outages;
- cloud provider interruptions;
- telecommunications failures;
- third-party failures;
- force majeure events;
- regulatory actions;

- or other operational circumstances.

Planned maintenance may be performed with reasonable notice where practicable.

112. Maintenance and Updates

To improve performance, reliability, functionality, and security, Ckript may:

- deploy updates;
- install patches;
- modify infrastructure;
- replace software components;
- migrate databases;
- improve AI systems;
- update APIs;
- retire legacy systems;
- introduce new technologies.

Some updates may temporarily affect Service availability.

113. Third-Party Services

The Services may integrate with or rely upon third-party products and services, including but not limited to:

- payment processors;
- cloud infrastructure providers;
- authentication providers;
- artificial intelligence providers;
- mapping services;
- communication platforms;
- video conferencing platforms;
- email providers;
- analytics providers;
- storage providers;
- developer platforms;
- social media platforms;

- advertising networks;
- government services;
- verification providers;
- productivity tools.

Such third-party services operate independently of Ckript.

Ckript does not own or control such services and is not responsible for their:

- availability;
- reliability;
- security;
- functionality;
- accuracy;
- privacy practices;
- policies;
- content.

Your use of third-party services remains subject to their respective terms and privacy policies.

114. Third-Party Content

The Services may display, host, index, recommend, reference, link to, or otherwise make available content supplied by third parties.

Third-party content remains the responsibility of its respective owner or publisher.

Unless expressly stated otherwise, Ckript does not endorse, verify, or guarantee:

- opinions;
- recommendations;
- advertisements;
- investment opportunities;
- employment opportunities;
- educational material;
- legal information;
- financial information;
- professional advice;
- user-generated content.

Users should independently evaluate such information before relying upon it.

116. Marketplace Disclaimer

Ckript provides technology that facilitates discovery and communication between Users.

Except where expressly agreed otherwise:

Ckript does not guarantee:

- successful negotiations;
- licensing agreements;
- publishing agreements;
- production agreements;
- investments;
- employment opportunities;
- collaborations;
- commercial success;
- creator earnings;
- royalties;
- project funding;
- acquisition of intellectual property.

Commercial decisions remain solely the responsibility of participating Users.

117. No Professional Advice

Information made available through the Services, including AI-generated material, educational resources, community discussions, templates, webinars, documentation, articles, or other content, is provided for general informational purposes only.

Nothing contained within the Services constitutes:

- legal advice;
- financial advice;
- tax advice;
- accounting advice;
- investment advice;
- publishing advice;
- production advice;

- medical advice;
- employment advice;
- professional consulting services.

Users should seek appropriate professional advice before making significant legal, financial, commercial, or business decisions.

118. Beta Services Disclaimer

Experimental, preview, beta, pilot, or early-access Services may:

- contain bugs;
- change substantially;
- produce unexpected results;
- experience interruptions;
- be discontinued without notice;
- not receive technical support.

Users access Beta Services voluntarily and acknowledge that such Services may not perform as expected.

119. Compatibility

Ckript does not guarantee that the Services will be compatible with:

- every device;
- every browser;
- every operating system;
- every internet connection;
- every mobile device;
- every third-party integration.

Users are responsible for ensuring that their hardware, software, and internet connectivity meet the minimum technical requirements for accessing the Services.

120. Warranties Disclaimer

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, the Services are provided on an "AS IS", "AS AVAILABLE", and "WITH ALL FAULTS" basis.

Except where prohibited by law, Ckript expressly disclaims all warranties, representations, and guarantees, whether express, implied, statutory, or otherwise, including but not limited to:

- merchantability;
- fitness for a particular purpose;
- non-infringement;
- uninterrupted availability;
- error-free operation;
- security;
- reliability;
- accuracy;
- completeness;
- compatibility;
- performance.

Nothing in this Section excludes warranties that cannot legally be excluded under applicable law.

121. Force Majeure

Ckript shall not be liable for any delay, interruption, failure, or inability to perform its obligations where such delay or failure results from circumstances beyond its reasonable control, including but not limited to:

- natural disasters;
- floods;
- earthquakes;
- fires;
- epidemics;
- pandemics;
- war;
- terrorism;
- civil unrest;
- governmental action;
- sanctions;
- labour disputes;
- internet outages;
- cloud service failures;
- cyberattacks;

- power failures;
- telecommunications failures;
- supply chain disruptions;
- acts of God;
- or other similar events beyond Ckript's reasonable control.

Performance shall be suspended only for the duration of the Force Majeure event and shall resume as soon as reasonably practicable.

122. Reservation of Technical Rights

To ensure the continued operation, security, and improvement of the Services, Ckript reserves the right to:

- suspend functionality;
- disable features;
- modify APIs;
- introduce security measures;
- replace technologies;
- update software;
- implement technical restrictions;
- migrate infrastructure;
- improve AI models;
- redesign user interfaces;
- optimise system performance.

Such actions shall be undertaken in accordance with applicable law and these Terms.

123. Limitation of Liability

To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, Ckript, its parent companies, subsidiaries, affiliates, directors, officers, employees, consultants, contractors, licensors, service providers, successors, assigns, agents, and representatives shall not be liable for any indirect, incidental, consequential, exemplary, punitive, special, or similar damages arising out of or relating to:

- use of or inability to use the Services;
- loss of profits;
- loss of revenue;
- loss of business opportunities;
- loss of goodwill;

- loss of reputation;
- loss of anticipated savings;
- business interruption;
- data loss;
- corruption of data;
- unauthorised access;
- cyber incidents;
- marketplace transactions;
- failed negotiations;
- missed commercial opportunities;
- AI-generated outputs;
- third-party services;
- or any other commercial or economic loss.

This limitation applies regardless of the legal theory upon which liability is asserted, including contract, tort (including negligence), strict liability, statutory liability, or otherwise.

124. Liability Cap

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, Ckript's aggregate liability arising out of or relating to the Services shall not exceed the greater of:

- the total amount actually paid by the User to Ckript for the specific Service giving rise to the claim during the twelve (12) months immediately preceding the event giving rise to the claim; or
- INR ₹5,000 (or the equivalent amount in the applicable local currency).

This limitation shall not apply where prohibited by applicable law.

125. Exclusions from Limitation

Nothing in these Terms excludes or limits liability that cannot lawfully be excluded or limited under applicable law.

Without limitation, nothing in these Terms excludes liability for:

- fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation;
- wilful misconduct where exclusion is prohibited by law;
- death or personal injury caused by negligence where such exclusion is prohibited;
- statutory consumer rights that cannot legally be waived;

- any other liability that applicable law does not permit to be excluded or limited.

126. User Responsibility

Users acknowledge that they are solely responsible for:

- their decisions;
- their commercial negotiations;
- their legal compliance;
- protecting their intellectual property;
- obtaining professional advice;
- evaluating opportunities;
- verifying counterparties;
- securing confidential information;
- complying with tax obligations;
- safeguarding their credentials.

Ckript provides technology to facilitate interactions and does not make decisions on behalf of Users.

127. Indemnification

You agree to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless Ckript, its parent companies, subsidiaries, affiliates, directors, officers, employees, contractors, licensors, service providers, successors, assigns, and representatives from and against any claims, actions, proceedings, liabilities, damages, losses, judgments, settlements, penalties, fines, costs, and expenses (including reasonable legal fees) arising out of or relating to:

- your breach of these Terms;
- your violation of applicable law;
- your infringement of intellectual property rights;
- your misuse of the Services;
- your Content;
- your commercial dealings with other Users;
- fraudulent conduct;
- negligent conduct;
- wilful misconduct;
- your violation of third-party rights.

Ckript reserves the right, at its own expense, to assume the exclusive defence and control of any matter otherwise subject to indemnification, and you agree to cooperate reasonably with such defence.

128. Claims Between Users

Disputes arising directly between Users, including disputes relating to:

- ownership;
- licensing;
- payments;
- royalties;
- collaborations;
- contracts;
- confidentiality;
- employment;
- investments;
- publishing;
- production;
- commercial negotiations;

shall remain the responsibility of the participating Users.

Except where required by applicable law or expressly agreed otherwise, Ckript shall not be responsible for resolving private disputes between Users.

Ckript may, at its sole discretion, facilitate communication or provide procedural assistance, but shall not be obligated to mediate or arbitrate such disputes.

129. Governing Law

These Terms, the Privacy Policy, the Refund Policy, and any dispute arising out of or relating to the Services shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India, without regard to its conflict of laws principles.

Where mandatory local consumer protection laws apply, those mandatory rights shall remain unaffected.

130. Jurisdiction

Subject to the dispute resolution provisions contained in these Terms, the courts located in New Delhi, India, shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any dispute arising out of or relating to these Terms or the Services.

Nothing in this Section prevents Ckript from seeking interim, injunctive, or equitable relief before any court of competent jurisdiction where necessary to protect its rights, intellectual property, confidential information, or security.

131. Good Faith Resolution

Before commencing formal legal proceedings, the parties agree to make reasonable efforts to resolve disputes through good-faith discussions.

A party raising a dispute should provide written notice describing:

- the nature of the dispute;
- the relevant facts;
- the relief sought; and
- supporting information reasonably necessary to understand the issue.

The parties shall use reasonable efforts to resolve the dispute within thirty (30) days from receipt of such notice, unless a longer period is mutually agreed.

Nothing in this Section prevents a party from seeking urgent interim relief where delay would cause irreparable harm.

132. Arbitration (Optional Where Enforceable)

Where permitted by applicable law and agreed by the parties or required under a separate written agreement, disputes may be resolved through arbitration.

Unless otherwise agreed:

- the seat of arbitration shall be New Delhi, India;
- the arbitration shall be conducted in the English and Hindi language;
- the arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (as amended);
- the arbitral award shall be final and binding upon the parties.

Nothing in this Section limits the right of either party to seek interim or conservatory relief from a court of competent jurisdiction.

133. Injunctive Relief

You acknowledge that unauthorised disclosure of confidential information, infringement of intellectual property rights, misuse of trade secrets, or unlawful interference with the Services may cause irreparable harm to Ckript for which monetary damages alone may be inadequate.

Accordingly, Ckript may seek temporary, preliminary, permanent, or equitable injunctive relief, specific performance, or other appropriate remedies, in addition to any other remedies available under applicable law.

134. Assignment

Ckript may assign, transfer, delegate, novate, or otherwise dispose of its rights and obligations under these Terms in connection with:

- a merger;
- acquisition;
- corporate restructuring;
- financing;
- sale of assets;
- business transfer;
- internal reorganisation; or
- operation of the Services, provided that such assignment does not materially reduce Users' rights under these Terms.

Users may not assign, transfer, delegate, sublicense, or otherwise dispose of their rights or obligations under these Terms without Ckript's prior written consent.

135. Waiver

Failure by Ckript to enforce any provision of these Terms shall not constitute a waiver of that provision or of any other provision.

Any waiver shall be effective only if made expressly in writing by an authorised representative of Ckript.

136. Severability

If any provision of these Terms is determined by a court or tribunal of competent jurisdiction to be unlawful, invalid, or unenforceable, that provision shall be enforced to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law.

The remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect.

137. No Third-Party Beneficiaries

Except where expressly stated otherwise, these Terms are intended solely for the benefit of Ckript and the User.

No third party shall have any right to enforce any provision of these Terms solely by virtue of these Terms.

138. Survival

The following provisions shall survive suspension, expiration, or termination of these Terms to the extent necessary to give them effect:

- Intellectual Property;
 - User Content;
 - Confidentiality;
 - Payments;
 - Taxes;
 - Refunds;
 - Indemnification;
 - Limitation of Liability;
 - Dispute Resolution;
 - Governing Law;
 - Jurisdiction;
 - Arbitration;
 - Records Retention;
 - Compliance;
 - and any other provisions that by their nature are intended to survive.

139. Interpretation

Unless the context otherwise requires:

- headings are provided for convenience only and do not affect interpretation;
- the words "including", "includes", and "such as" shall be interpreted as meaning "including without limitation";
- references to the singular include the plural and vice versa;
- references to one gender include all genders;

- references to legislation include amendments, replacements, and subordinate legislation;
- references to writing include electronic communications where permitted by law.

140. Electronic Communications

By creating an Account, accessing the Services, or otherwise interacting with Ckript, you consent to receive communications electronically.

Electronic communications may include:

- account notifications;
- security alerts;
- invoices and receipts;
- service announcements;
- legal notices;
- policy updates;
- transaction confirmations;
- event communications;
- support responses;
- newsletters (where you have consented);
- and other communications relating to the Services.

You agree that electronic communications satisfy any legal requirement that such communications be provided in writing, except where applicable law requires a different form.

141. Notices

Unless otherwise required by applicable law, notices from Ckript may be provided through one or more of the following methods:

- email;
- in-platform notifications;
- dashboard announcements;
- account messages;
- publication on the official website;
- other electronic means reasonably designed to bring the notice to your attention.

Users are responsible for keeping their contact information accurate and up to date.

A notice shall be deemed received:

- immediately if delivered through the Platform;

- when transmitted electronically to the registered email address, unless delivery failure is notified;
 - or at such other time as may be required under applicable law.

142. Entire Agreement

These Terms, together with the following documents (as applicable), constitute the entire agreement between you and Ckript regarding your access to and use of the Services:

- Privacy Policy;
- Refund Policy;
- Community Guidelines;
- Cookie Policy (if adopted);
- AI Usage Policy (if adopted);
- API Terms (if adopted);
- Developer Terms (if adopted);
- Event-specific Rules;
- Enterprise Agreements;
- Subscription Terms;
- any additional policies or agreements expressly incorporated by reference.

These documents supersede all prior understandings, discussions, representations, proposals, or agreements relating to the same subject matter.

143. Policy Hierarchy

In the event of any inconsistency between the documents governing the Services, the following order of precedence shall apply, unless expressly stated otherwise:

1. A separately executed written agreement between Ckript and the User (if any);
2. Event-specific Rules or Enterprise Terms, but only for the relevant event or service;
3. These Terms & Conditions;
4. Refund Policy;
5. Privacy Policy;
6. Community Guidelines;
7. Other Platform Policies.

Where two documents can reasonably be interpreted consistently, they shall be read together.

144. Changes to Policies

Ckript may introduce, modify, replace, consolidate, or discontinue Platform policies from time to time in accordance with applicable law.

Material changes that significantly affect Users' rights or obligations will be communicated through reasonable means before taking effect, where required by law.

Continued use of the Services after the effective date of such changes constitutes acceptance of the revised policies, except where applicable law requires additional consent.

145. Language

These Terms are drafted in the English language.

Translations may be provided solely for convenience.

In the event of any inconsistency between the English version and a translated version, the English version shall prevail to the extent permitted by applicable law.

146. International Use

The Services may be accessible from multiple jurisdictions.

Users accessing the Services from outside India are responsible for ensuring that their use complies with the laws applicable in their jurisdiction.

Ckript makes no representation that the Services are appropriate or lawful in every jurisdiction.

Access to the Services may be restricted where prohibited by law or regulatory requirements.

147. Relationship of the Parties

Nothing contained in these Terms shall be interpreted as creating:

- a partnership;
- joint venture;
- employment relationship;
- agency relationship;
- fiduciary relationship;
- franchise;
- representative capacity; or
- legal association between Ckript and any User.

Each party acts as an independent contracting party.

148. No Waiver of Statutory Rights

Nothing in these Terms shall be interpreted as excluding, restricting, or limiting any statutory rights that cannot lawfully be waived under applicable law.

Where applicable consumer protection legislation provides rights that are inconsistent with these Terms, the mandatory provisions of such legislation shall prevail to the extent required by law.

149. Contact Information

Questions, legal notices, complaints, copyright notices, policy enquiries, or other communications relating to these Terms may be directed to:
